DCC PROGRAM OVERVIEW

DEVELOPING CULTURAL COMPETENCE

GTI uses the TMC/Berlitz Cultural Orientations Model as our guiding framework for discussing culture. Cultural competence is the perpetual process of individual growth in successfully navigating culturally diverse situations and working with people of other cultures.

Each of the course topics engage students through:

- Self-paced learning modules
- 90-minute facilitated discussions
- Reflective exercises (3 individual + 1 group)

Students should plan to dedicate 3 hours per week during this 4-week program.

1. Orientation and Introductions

- Introduce the learning community
- Consider common language
- Connect traditions to cultural identities

Reflection: Discussion Forum

2. Foundations

- Exchange gifs and memes to share about personal cultural identities
- Strategize a team approach to researching cultural knowledge

Reflection: Cultural Practice Report

3. Developing Cultural Knowledge

- Present a group report
- Study U.S. cultural values
- Identify cultural gaps

Reflection: Discussion Forum

4. Skills and Application

- Consider four cultural skills and how they mitigate cultural gaps
- Apply learning to personal experiences and common cultural scenarios

Reflection: Final Assessment
